

Heritage Award Nominations Projects and Programs completed in 2016

We are happy to present the nominees for the Heritage Awards of the League of Snohomish County Heritage Organizations. If more than one publication is nominated, two Malstrom awards may be given, one for an outstanding publication and one for an outstanding project.

Book:

Sawdust Empire by J. D. Howard

Historical novel featuring the mystery and various perspectives on the 1916 Everett Massacre and shingle weavers union strike. It also tells the story of the timber industry of the day and life in Snohomish County at the time. "Brings Everett to life to the extent that a reader can smell the sweat and sawdust" Kirkus Indie Reviews

Video :

"We Are The Salmon People:

Bernie Gobin's Story" is a 24-minute video documentary. "We Are The Salmon People: Bernie Gobin's Story" documents how a Tulalip Indian has made a difference for generations to come. The 24-minute documentary shows that through decades of hard work and determination, there are successes in fighting for your homeland. A friend to all, Bernie fought for Indian fishing rights, and for fish themselves. Today, a hatchery honors his name. Submitted by Tulalip History Project, Hibulb Cultural Center, Tulalip Tribes.

Coloring Book:

Heritage Park Coloring / Activity Book created by artist Brenda Sanchez and Members of the Sno-Isle Genealogical Society.

The coloring/activity book was created to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of Sno-Isle Genealogical Society by depicting parts of Lynnwood's Heritage Park that showcase Lynnwood's brief history. All buildings and entities of the Park are drawn in such a way as to encourage participation in learning by coloring and reading short descriptions.

Verona: The Story of the Everett Massacre” (A Documentary Film)

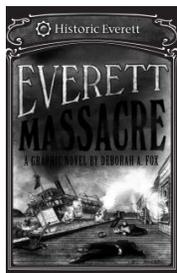

by Denise Ohio and Holy Toledo Pictures, Inc. On 5 November 1916, 250 Wobblies aboard the steam Verona were met at the Everett City Dock by Sheriff Don McRae and 140 deputies. When the shooting stopped, five men were dead, two were dying and dozens were wounded. How did they get to this point? Using expert analysis, archival materials, and animation, Verona: The Story of the Everett Massacre explores the killing the cause and the characters in this tragic labor conflict.

Program Series:

Everett Massacre Centennial Series

Over the course of the summer and fall of 2016, Cameron Johnson, on behalf of the Everett Public Library, coordinated a series of lectures, exhibits, film screenings, and podcast and video features to educate the public about the Everett Massacre.
